Adaptive Recreation

Adaptive Recreation had a busy October! A massive shoutout to all the incredible athletes who showcased their skills in Bocce, Swim, and Softball at Special Olympics competitions this month! Your determination and teamwork truly inspired us all.

Congratulations to all our Chandler athletes who medaled during their events!

Classes, events, and programs opening for registration on November 5 include:

- Running Club
- Holiday Cookie Decorating
- Service Squad
- Basketball
- Zumba and more

Explore the Winter Adaptive Recreation section of Break Time here.

Let's keep celebrating the spirit of inclusion and achievement!

Spotlight - The Sunpunchers

The Sunpunchers will fill your heart, soul, and ears with Americana/Desert Root sounds that range from hypnotic to tender. They share a heaping dose of positive energy, storytelling, and audience participation in every live performance. The Phoenix New Times declared the band “relentlessly soulful” and music blog YabYum wrote in their review of EP Honey that “the sound The Sunpunchers have captured is mesmerizing.”

Bring your blankets, chairs, and coolers for a free concert in the park under the stars.

Thursday, November 21 at 6 p.m. | Veterans Oasis Park | FREE
